INTRODUCTION

Exchange Place is a live, work, play district and transit hub less than 5 minutes from Manhattan.

Historic Exchange Place is the financial district of Jersey City and North Jersey. Often referred to as “Wall Street West”, Exchange Place is the gateway to 19 million square feet of class A office space along the Jersey City and Hoboken waterfront. The Exchange Place Path Transportation Center has steadily become one of Path’s most convenient stops on the PATH line. With a ten car platform, the commute into the Trade Center is the fastest on the line, with 2,243,857 million riders last year. The Port Authority Trans-Hudson (“PATH”) Trains are a 24-hour rapid transit system providing a vital link between Jersey City, Hoboken, Harrison, Newark and Manhattan

NEIGHBORHOOD

Paulus Hook, Exchange Place Financial District and Colgate Center

Paulus Hook is one of the three cornerstone historic districts in downtown Jersey City that has driven the city's renaissance. Paulus Hook is a waterfront neighborhood, with waterfront views of both the Hudson River, the Tidewater basin and lower harbor. Although primarily residential in nature, Paulus Hook now includes the highly successful restaurant scene and the best transportation options of any of the Downtown communities. 101 Hudson Street is located the Exchange Place Financial District/Colgate Center and includes lower Montgomery Street and Washington Blvd, two of the main streets for the downtown community.
